- 1 Students must carry their university-issued ID card to every examination. Entry will not be permitted without a valid ID card.
- 2 Minimum attendance of 75% in each subject is mandatory to be eligible to appear for the end-semester examination. Students below 75% attendance must apply for condonation through the department office.
- 3 Students arriving more than 30 minutes after the exam start time will not be permitted to enter the examination hall.
- 4 Use of mobile phones, smartwatches, or any electronic devices during the examination is strictly prohibited and will be treated as a case of unfair means.
- 5 A student found using unfair means during an examination will have that paper cancelled and the matter referred to the Examination Malpractice Committee.
- 6 Revaluation applications must be submitted within 10 days of result declaration, along with the prescribed revaluation fee.
- 7 Supplementary examinations for backlog subjects are conducted twice a year, typically in June and December.
- 8 Students must obtain a minimum of 40% marks in aggregate (internal plus end-semester) to pass a subject, subject to a minimum of 35% in the end-semester exam itself.
- 9 Calculators are permitted only in subjects where explicitly mentioned in the question paper instructions. Programmable calculators are not allowed under any circumstances.
- 10 Hall tickets must be downloaded from the student portal at least three days before the first exam and printed in color or black-and-white.
